

Cancer Health Equity Center of Excellence (CHECoE) Annual Cancer Disparities Research Symposium

Join us to advance cancer disparities research!

Hear from inspiring keynote speakers, top researchers, and panel discussions with community scientists. Learn from researchers who engaged in a Community Science Café and explore how science and community come together to make an impact at the Rutgers Cancer Institute and across New Jersey.

Register Here

REGISTRATION IS LIMITED

go.rutgers.edu/checoessymposium2026

Abstract
Submission
Deadline
March 15, 2026

- Abstract submissions on "Addressing Cancer Health Disparities through Basic, Clinical, Translational, and Population Science Research"
- Submitting an abstract implies at least one of the authors will present their poster during the Abstract Sessions.
- Poster Session Submission Deadline March 15, 2026. Additional information regarding poster size and formatting will be sent to those with accepted abstracts.
- Click here for Abstract Guidelines

For updates and abstract submissions, visit:
cijn.org/outreach/cancer-health-equity-center-excellence-annual-research-symposium

Thursday, May 7, 2026

Symposium starts at 8:30 am.
Mocktails, Mingle, and Poster Session starts at 4:30 p.m.

Featuring:

Scientific Distinguished Keynote Speaker

Sophia HL George, PhD
Professor

Department of Ob, Gyn
and Reproductive Sciences
Division of Gynecologic Oncology

Community Patient
Advocate Keynote Speaker

Melanie A. Nix
Transformational Speaker and Resilience Coach

Rutgers Cancer Institute
Auditorium A & B
195 Little Albany Street,
New Brunswick, NJ

RWJBarnabas
HEALTH

R | RUTGERS HEALTH
Rutgers Cancer Institute

