

Cancer Survivorship Education Series

The Cancer Survivorship Education Series provides information for patients and their caregivers that extends beyond the treatment process. All sessions will be held virtually. A link to the program will be provided upon registration.

Understanding long term and late effects of treatment

Thursday, February 26 | 6 - 7 p.m.

Louise Ligresti, MD, Chief of Cancer Survivorship,
Rutgers Cancer Institute and Cooperman Barnabas Medical Center
Register by: February 21

Holistic therapy for cancer survivors

Thursday, March 26 | 6 - 7 p.m.

Cathy Ponterio, BSN, RN, HNB-BC, HWNC-BC, CCAP, Holistic Nurse Practitioner,
Cancer Services Patient and Family, Cooperman Barnabas Medical Center
Register by: March 21

Lymphedema: Do I have it? Can I get it?

Thursday, April 29 | 6 - 7 p.m.

Cherry Oruga, PT, CLT, Certified Lymphedema Therapist,
Jack & Sheryl Morris Cancer Center
Register by: April 24

Caring for the caregiver

Thursday, May 14 | 6 - 7 p.m.

Miriam Mahmood, Newark Beth Israel Medical Center
Register by: May 9

Genetics

Thursday, June 17 | 6 - 7 p.m.

Kacie Baker, MS, LGC, Licensed Genetic Counselor,
Cancer Services, Monmouth Medical Center
Register by: June 12

RWJBarnabas
HEALTH

R | RUTGERS HEALTH
Rutgers Cancer Institute